Leaking Fuel Oil

The Emergency Operations Center has received two reports of home fuel oil leaking from tanks located in flooded basements. Homeowners who have leaking fuel oil should contact the Department of Natural Resources Spills Hotline at 1-800-943-0003.

Lake Koshkonong status being monitored

The Department of Natural Resources responded to reports of floating bogs in Lake Koshkonong in Jefferson County floating toward the mouth of the Rock River. National Guard officials surveyed the lake by air in a Black Hawk helicopter, as well. Approximately eight floating bogs were located and pushed ashore by a DNR Warden. In addition, a large floating tree and debris from three boat lifts were located and are now stuck on the lake bottom. National Guard and Department of Natural Resources will monitor the lake by boat tomorrow morning.

Wisconsin Army National Guard

The Wisconsin Army National Guard has 110 personnel in the 229th Engineer Company, based in Prairie du Chien and Platteville, on State active duty to assist with life safety issues and emergency road repair in Richland, Sauk and Vernon Counties and other areas as needs are identified. The Guard is also overseeing sandbagging efforts in Jefferson.

The National Guard is also operating traffic control points on flooded roads in:

- Columbia County (two total)
- Janesville (seven total)
- Jefferson County (six total)

In Fort Atkinson, the Wisconsin Air National Guard is using a 100 kilowatt generator to power a sewage lift station which has lost electricity.

Red Cross

Four Red Cross shelters remain open, providing shelter to 47 people last Wednesday night. The shelters are located in Muscoda, Janesville, Ft. Atkinson and Milwaukee. The Reedsburg Red Cross Shelter is closed.

State Agency Support

State agency personnel, including the National Guard, continue to provide 24/7 support for the State Emergency Operations Center and the Joint Operations Center. State personnel are working closely with FEMA in the Joint Field Office and in field operations in the Disaster Recovery Centers and Damage Assessment Teams. Additionally, assistance is being provided to communities across southern Wisconsin from the Department of Transportation – Highways, the Wisconsin State Patrol, the Department of Health and Family Services, DNR Law Enforcement and Dam Safety, the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the Wisconsin National Guard and many more.
